BLOOD DRAW SEARCH WARRANT APPEAL DENIED

The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals has denied an appeal from the Circuit Court of Lewis County contesting the use of a search warrant to obtain a blood sample from the defendant in a DUI case. State v. Jerry K. Walls, II - No. 051633, Denied November 3, 2005 in a 4-1 vote [Benjamin. J.]. The defendant was charged with DUI Third Offense, Driving Revoked for DUI and DUI with a BAC of .10 or higher.

Walls, arrested April 9, 2004, had refused the Intoxilyzer test twice after having also failed all three field sobriety tests and the PBT. A search warrant for his blood was obtained and his blood was drawn at a local hospital. The defendant sought to suppress the results of the blood test results, which was denied by the Hon. Thomas Keadle, Circuit Judge. Walls entered a conditional guilty plea to the DUI Third Offense and Driving Revoked for DUI with the understanding that should the Supreme Court of Appeals reverse the Circuit Court's ruling regarding the admissibility of the blood test results Mr. Walls could withdraw his pleas. The sole assignment of error in the case was whether the circuit court had erred
